

greg christman / gregchristmandesign.com / gregchristman@gmail.com / 610.730.3215

qualifications

Innovative, original approach to design with general knowledge of how to be awesome. I have a great work ethic, a sense of humor and you should hire me.

education

BFA, Kutztown University, Kutztown, PA May 2007
Communication Design, Concentration in Graphic Design Dean's List

skills

Creative thinker with a playful sense of design, illustration & typography. Knowledge of Macintosh OSX, Adobe Illustrator, Photoshop, InDesign, QuarkXPress (if I have a time machine), and how to use my hands to make beautiful things.

experience

Junior Art Director; Quaker City Mercantile/Gyro Worldwide, Philadelphia, PA, 2007 - Present
Rebranding, Identity, Logos, Illustration, Print, Posters, Etc... You name it, we've done it.
Clients include: Sailor Jerry Rum/Clothing, Prince Tennis, Versus Television, Ecco footwear, New Balance, Philly.com, Narragansett Beer, Quirk Books, William Grant and Sons, R.J. Reynolds.

Freelance Designer; 2002 - Present
I design tons of stuff, for tons of people and it's tons of fun... it also keeps me on my toes.

Volunteer Graphic Designer; AIGA 24-Hour Design-A-Thon, Kutztown, PA
Worked with a team of students to design for a local non-profit organization.

Graphic Designer; New Student Programs & Services, Kutztown University, June 2006 - May 2007
Responsibilities included design work for the Class of 2011 Summer Orientation Program, Connections, as well as various other campus events throughout the year. Worked within the University guidelines, budget and standards manual. Contacted printers to acquire quotes & estimates.

Design Intern; Henson Co., Sinking Springs, PA, Fall 2006
Designed wrestling singlets, t-shirts, catalogs, advertisements, and web sites. Worked with a team of designers to create logos for youth, high school & college sports teams.

geekiness

Eagle Scout, February, 2003

activities & interests

Design
Illustration
Type design - context-foundry.com
Playing music
RoboCop
Blogging - campmoviecamp.blogspot.com
Travel
Life